MONDAY
JUNE 12

Mark-up is slated to begin in Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee. (Keep those cards and letters rollin' in!!)

RARE-II MEETING. Our last unprotected wilderness is being studied one final time before it is opened forever to development! Your favorite areas may be at stake!! Learn how to protect our de facto wilderness areas. Come to Charlie Raines' house, 4529 Bagley N., at 7:30 P.M., Call: 634-1877. RARE-II NEEDS YOU!!

TUESDAY
JUNE 27

Day-long ALASKA SYMPOSIUM, University of Washington, HUB Auditorium. For those of you who missed the "Year of Alaska" at WWU in Bellingham, now is your second and last chance to learn the pros and cons of the D-2 issue! Keynote address will be given by Robert Herbst, Assistant Secretary of Interior for Parks, Fish and Wildlife. A special guest for this event will be Celia Hunter, Executive Director of the Wilderness Society. For further information call 543-1812.

TUESDAY
JULY 4

This is the day Senator Jackson intends to move the Alaska lands legislation onto the floor of the Senate!

SATURDAY
JULY 22

ALASKA WILDERNESS DAY, Gasworks Park, Seattle. This all-day extravaganza will feature canoe racing, events, live music, fun and games. More details will be forthcoming. John Huskinson, 329-5573, would gladly accept volunteers interested in working on this gala affair.
